JACKTER

Jackter Phone is one of the most awesome pumpers on earth. Though he has lost nearly half his size over the last year and cut his strength in half as well, his determination and commitment has grown one thousand percent. It was awesome to talk to Jackter about pumping, life, and his obedience to the Ray Alien Soda Tube System App on apple IOS iPhone.

Doug

Jackter, it is so awesome to meet you. How did you get so big from pumping? Say, "Phone" is an interesting surname, can you tell us about that?

Jackter

I do not understand. I do not understand my life. My name was changed when I traveled to live in United State and work for apps.

Doug

So you lost tons of strength and power this year and decreased your size and mass. What was that like?

Jackter

All the best of my life is commit to obedience. The app told me obedience. My size and power is no more like it used to. But I obey because I made a comittment to work for you.

Doug

I love that, it is totally about obedience and making sure you stick to the plan. It's not about size and power and all. I find that inspiring. Can you tell us about the apple IOS iPhone app available in the app store that you've used to build obedience through pumping and sipping?

Jackter

I must film my pumps for the app. The pumps cannot be long and I cannot pump as good because of the soda. The soda I drink makes pumps harder and my body doesn't get to pump good. I don't understand my life.

Doug

So you open the app, and Ray Alien tells you when to sip your soda from your Soda Tube during a pump? That's awesome. Basically you get to enjoy your awesome Soda Tube and pump at the same time, but you also learn the most important lesson of fitness: obedience. Can you talk about that.

Jackter

When you gave me offer to make my pumps with you app, I accept, not know it make me much smaller but I obey because I must commit to working for app and for you. Thank you. I am much smaller but have learned to obey. Thank you.

Doug

Well, I guess I'll let you get back to enjoying Ray Alien's Soda Tube System app which will soon be available in the Apple IOS iPhone App store. Congrats Jackter! Thank you!

Pumping bio-energy

Imagine that through your fingertips epic “laser-style beams” are busting into infinite space

- a. Imagine that these infinitely freelongated fingers are scanning distant skorbs
- b. Picture that these elongated ticklers are beaming right through the walls
- c. Direct the “dowels” of the one hand on the palm of the other (feel the actual transfer of energy)
- d. Especially during meditative dancing, feel how your “tight ass beams” generate a vortex in the invisible world of energy from days of yore

GO ON. EAT ME.

Just look at me. How utterly delicious I am. Don't you just want to sink your teeth into my glorious milkiness, my scrumptious aromas? Yes. Just admit it, freak. You want me. Look at all my faces. You're so hungry, just come take a bite. Oh yeah, that's it, stare into our delicious eyes. Mmm, yes come and eat me. Yum, yum! Dig around in me with your cute little spoon. Go on, what are you so worried about? We both KNOW I'm delicious.
