Even the Pros Trust GorsePrint For a Winning Performance

"When I need to print images of my interior Jar Spots or body heaves spontaneously and I'm away from my pro printers, I usually reach for one of GorsePrint's pocket models. It's quicker and prints just as well most of the time."

"When I go to a body-meet for instance, there's just no time to swap inkjets or install picture points inside my body. The Gorseprint 8560 never needs a swap on the go and my internal points are already pre installed. It works off my body heat. I can attach the photo arm to my mouth or eyes and my internal photos are instantly transformed into a perfect print out of exactly what I want to see. im in heaven when I use my GorsePrint."

"And when I go on vacation, I use GorsePrint's 8340 Tinyweight TC-1 designed by Chris Pring using multi pump spray jets to auto print images of the interior of my body at a moments notice. Total zooms and total data print outs next to my images make it easy to eliminate disgust as I look at my own images. Do you understand? My only complaint with this device is that I can't have more of them. I'd put one in every nook and cranny of my dwelling and vehicle if those two objects and/or places had any extra nooks or crannies to stuff objects into."

"When I'm out having fun, there's just no time for complicated set-ups. I need printers that will DO IT ALL and produce internal photographs of my body using 3D technology scans that show incredible artistic renditions of my body stats, internal levels and my body's unique flare. I am thankful for G-Print."

Beato Gumb

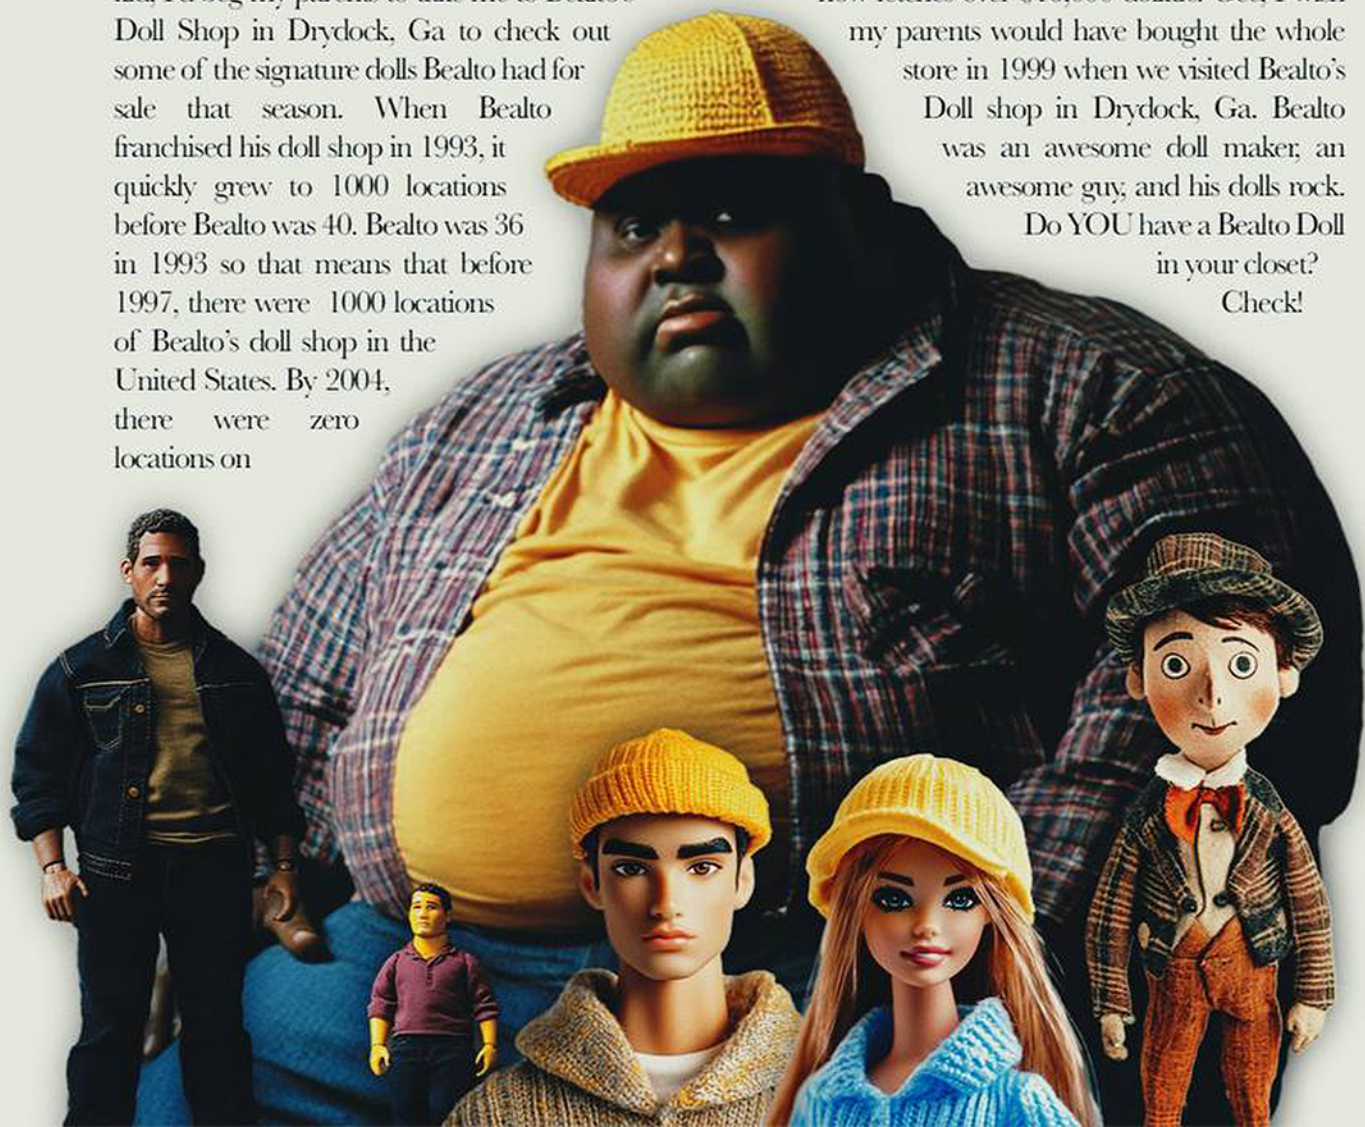

The Doll King

If you've seen one doll you've seen them all. That's not true at all, even slightly. If you haven't seen one of Beato Gumb's signature dolls, you haven't seen one. If it's true that all dolls contain within them a secret "power" or "doll source," then Beato's dolls are simply "more powerful than the rest." When I was a kid, I'd beg my parents to take me to Beato's Doll Shop in Drydock, Ga to check out some of the signature dolls Beato had for sale that season. When Beato franchised his doll shop in 1993, it quickly grew to 1000 locations before Beato was 40. Beato was 36 in 1993 so that means that before 1997, there were 1000 locations of Beato's doll shop in the United States. By 2004, there were zero locations on earth. By 2005, Beato Gumb was deceased. This was terrible news for lovers of his unique dolls, but it was wonderful news for collectors of his toy dolls who may have also been and continue to be lovers of them also, because this meant that Beato Gumb's dolls got a heck ton more rare. An original Beato Gumb doll now fetches over $16,000 dollars. Gee, I wish my parents would have bought the whole store in 1999 when we visited Beato's Doll shop in Drydock, Ga. Beato was an awesome doll maker; an awesome guy; and his dolls rock.

Doxxing Strangers is fun and relaxing!

By "Anonymous"

We've all been there: A stranger on the Internet gets under your skin, rubs you the wrong way, rubs your skin the wrong way. You want to find their address using sleuth tactics and publish it to the internet but you're worried about doing something unethical. An EthicTech study suggests DON'T! It's fun (already known) but also relaxing and can actually make the OTHER person feel better!

"He lives at 21 Western Ave...halfway between the Budd Street Recreation Area and the Morristown Green"

In a bombshell new report, a group of aggrieved Behavioral Scientists interviewed both people who have doxxed in the past and those that have BEEN doxxed and found them both happy and very relaxed. Conveniently, they were able to connect to BOTH parties because of the diligent "detective work" of the doxxers, so there!

In one example, an individual (let's call him John Q.) was able to find everything about BigWE1NER1988 with just a few hours of Facebook/LinkedIn detective work. BigWE1NER1988 is in fact Liam Welsh of Morristown, NJ.

He lives at 21 Western Ave, which is kinda halfway between the Budd Street Recreation Area and the Morristown Green. He works at that Verizon store right next to the train station! His parents, Scott and Ginny, are also still active! Scott is a salesman at Rago Brothers and Ginny is an HR Rep for SoFI, working from home and loving every minute of it.

The phone book of a report contains thousands of pages of personal information that can, but might NOT be, weaponized against those that have been annoying online. "Don't be a jerk" one of the Behavioral Scientists (requesting anonymity and privacy, please) said of the findings, "We're all in this together."
